Finishing the Job:
Ensuring Coverage for all Californians

Speaker Biographies
Los Angeles – April 9, 2014

Betzabel Estudillo
California Immigrant Policy Center

Betzabel Estudillo is CIPC's Health Policy Coordinator based in Los Angeles. Previously, she was the Community Coordinator for the CLEAN Carwash Campaign organizing immigrant carwash workers in Los Angeles. While in graduate school she interned with the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health analyzing health policies and providing best practices when working with immigrants. She has also been a community organizer in multiple immigrant youth groups including IDEAS at UCLA, DREAM Team Los Angeles, Graduates Reaching a Dream Deferred (GRADD) and the CIRCLE Project. She obtained her M.S.W from the University of California Los Angeles, Luskin School of Public Affairs and a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California Los Angeles.

Cary Sanders
California Pan-Ethnic Health Network

Cary Sanders serves as CPEHN’s Director of Policy Analysis and the Having Our Say Coalition. Cary earned a Master of Public Policy from the University of California at Berkeley. Prior to joining HOS/CPEHN, Cary worked as a policy analyst for the California Immigrant Policy Center (CIPC) promoting pro-immigrant policies that address and respect the needs and contributions of California's diverse immigrant communities and their families. She has also worked as Assistant Policy Director for SEIU United Health Care Workers-West representing over 150,000 health care workers in California and as Policy Director for Services, Immigrant Rights and Education Network (SIREN) in San Jose. Cary is proficient in Spanish after having lived and worked in Guatemala.

Joseph Villela
Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights of Los Angeles

Joseph is the Senior Policy Advocate at CHIRLA. His significant experience and knowledge of the local, state and federal legislative process, has helped the immigrant community gain representation and advocacy strength for laws and regulations pertaining to access to health services, income support programs, and immigrant and civil rights. He graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2005.