Webinar #11: Architecting the CRDP Website and Collateral Materials Updates
November 20, 2020

Questions & Answers

1. Could there be a place to acknowledge the Phase 1 participants? – Stacie H.

Yes, on the CRDP website a page in the “About Us” section (“What is the CRDP?”) has been reserved to highlight both Phase I, Phase II, and any subsequent stages of the project. This includes space to discuss and uplift the contributions of all participants in each phase.

2. Where is the EOA Collateral Materials? – Lilyane G.

All materials have been organized in a Box folder named “EOA Collateral Materials”, which can be accessed at any time to download collateral materials. No login or password is needed. <https://app.box.com/s/nb5vq3n6fare0x1rq5umnj7oqwwonf8u>

3. Is there a specific tool you recommend in the toolkit for messaging to educators? – Stephanie M.

This is a great flag! Currently, that audience is not directly addressed in the Strategic Messaging Toolkit. The materials in the toolkit, including talking points, are ‘living resources’ that can be updated with further community input and direction. Feel free to connect with the EOA team and we can add specific talking points most relevant to the level of educators you have in mind.
