A Blueprint for Health: Planning for Communities that Promote Equity
Oakland – November 12, 2015

9:00 – 9:15 am  Welcome and Introductions
  ▪ Ruben Cantu, CPEHN

9:15 – 9:45 am  Why Are General Plans Important for Community Health?
  ▪ Heather Wooten, Changelab Solutions

9:45 – 10:30 am  OPR Presentation
  ▪ Dr. Elizabeth Baca, Governor’s Office of Planning and Research
  ▪ Discussion and Q&A

10:30 – 11:15 am  Local Perspective and Response
  ▪ Ruben Farias, HOPE Collaborative
  ▪ Anna Lee, Alameda County Public Health Department
  ▪ Discussion and Q&A

11:15 am – 12:00 pm  Working in Small Groups: Preparing Feedback for OPR

12:00 – 12:30 pm  Small Group Report Back

12:30 – 1:00 pm  Lunch

1:00 – 1:30 pm  Final Participant Comments

1:30 pm  Closing and Evaluation

Local Co-Hosts:

Special thank you to our funders, who help make our events possible:
  American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network • AstraZeneca • The California Endowment •
  California HealthCare Foundation • HealthNet • Kaiser Permanente • The San Francisco Foundation •
  Sutter Health

#Blueprint4Health